

TOUGH TOOLS FOR TOUGH WORK

New Purdy® Prep Tools

Most paint contractors have two things in common. They love Purdy. And, they hate the drudgery of surface preparation. It's tough work.

That's why Purdy is introducing a robust line of surface prep tools designed by pro painters for pro painters.

In contractor field tests, 96% of pros report Purdy prep tools are as good as or better than the brand they previously used.

With no-slip comfort grips, a well-balanced feel, durable high-carbon steel blades and a lifetime guarantee, there is plenty for painters to love.

Visit your local paint dealer and get your hands on the new Purdy prep tools today.
